

CPNP Feature Articles- Peer Review

Article Title: _____

Please complete the review of this article within 2 weeks and return to the Journal Editor.

Peer Review Criteria	Yes	No	N/A
1. Manuscript includes the following:
Title
Abstract
Introduction or background
Methods
Results
Discussion
Conclusion
2. Purpose of the manuscript is clear in the introduction or background.
3. Objective of the experiment or observation is important for the CPNP members.
4. Study designs and methods are appropriate. (Sufficient details are given so that a CPNP member could reproduce the experiment.)
5. Facts are accurate with no omissions or interpretations.
6. Calculations are accurate. (Complex calculations verified by attached spreadsheet.)
7. Statistical methods are appropriate for the data and referenced.
8. Response rates are presented in terms of number needed to treat (NNT)
9. Drawings, graphs and tables are pertinent to the data and easy to read.
10. Supplementary data tables, figures or long reference lists are provided if pertinent.
11. All discussion is relevant. (if 'no' make suggestions regarding expanding, condensing or omitting portions)
12. All literature cited is pertinent and the most recent available. (if 'no' cite essential references to be included or references to be deleted)
13. Ideas emphasized are appropriate.
14. Title of the article is appropriate and clear.
15. Abstract is concise and representative of the manuscript.
16. Material in this manuscript has not been published before. If 'no', give details: _____

Please include specific comments/suggestions on the reverse side of this form

Specific Suggestions for Revision: (Include suggestions regarding portions to be expanded, condensed or omitted. Suggest changes to any ambiguous or rambling sentences. Suggest changes to drawings, graphs and tables to improve clarity. Please address any “no” answers to the review criteria.)

Recommendations to the Journal Editor:

publish as is.

publish after suggested revisions, I am willing to review after revisions.

publish after suggested revisions, I am NOT able to review after revisions.

do not publish.

Reviewer Comments:

Reviewed by: _____ Date: _____